

The Associate

THE NEWSLETTER OF
THE ASSOCIATION OF HISTORICAL SOCIETIES
OF
NEW HAMPSHIRE

Spring, 2003

We begin our 2003 year with the spring meeting on Saturday, April 26. The Hampton Historical Society will host the meeting. Directions are shown below.

- 9:30 am Coffee and pastries, sign in
- 10:00 Welcoming remarks by Fred Foley, AHSNH President and Ben Moore, Hampton HS President
- 10:15 Program- 'Low Cost Tips for Preserving Your Collections'- Betty Moore, Executive Director of the Tuck Museum.
Even with a limited budget there are effective methods of handling, storing and displaying objects, textiles and paper based items that can be used for museums and personal collections.
- 11:15 Results of the AHSNH survey (survey form for Societies is enclosed with this newsletter)
- 11:45 AHSNH business meeting
- 12:00 Lunch (bring your own- beverage and dessert will be provided)
(Roll call of Societies and their upcoming events during lunch)
- 12:45 Tour of the Tuck Museum buildings

The Hampton Historical Society (whose main building is the Tuck Museum) is located on Park Ave, a street off Rte.1 (Lafayette Rd) in Hampton. Park Ave is on the east side of Rte1, .4 miles south of the intersection of Rte.1 and Rte.27 (High Street), and one block south of Winnacunnet Rd. From the north take I-95 south to exit 3, go east on Rt. 27 until you reach US1, south .4 miles on US1 until Park Avenue. Park Avenue is just before the road splits. Call 929-0781 for assistance.

Member Societies Upcoming Events

April

Exhibit continuing to August 2003- Manchester HS- "Pine Island Park" (info at www.manchesterhistoric.org)

2nd- Sanbornton HS- 'Busks and Bones: 18th Century Clothing and Medicine' Evelyn Auger-7:30 pm Lane Tavern

3rd- Hancock HS- American Pewter- Jonathan Gibson 12 noon

3rd- Hill HS- film- "A Light on the Mountain"- Amsden Auditorium, comments by Dr. Jere Daniels

3rd- Lee HS- 'Converting from Dairy to Grapes' Frank Weinhold (Flagg Hill Winery)- 7:30 pm Mast Way School

8th- Conway HS- 7 pm Salyards Museum- John Hively- 'What is a Theremin?'

11th- Deadline for nominations for the 2003 NH Preservation Alliance Annual Preservation Awards (info at www.nhpreservation.org)

12th Warren HS- Chowder and Chili Fest and program- email to tedrow@together.net for info

14th- Laconia HS 7:30 pm- Laconia Public Library- 'Historic Sites, Districts and Commissions' Linda Wilson, NH Division of Historic Resources

22nd- Durham HS meeting- 7 pm Durham Community Church

27th- Henniker HS- 'The Minks'- Rebecca Courser 2 pm

27th- Peterborough HS- 'Show & Tell' program about bits and pieces of Peterborough's past 1 pm 19 Grove St

May

1st- Hancock HS- 'Yankee and NH Humor'- Rebecca Rule 12 noon

1st- Lee HS- ' Early History of the NH Seacoast'- Sylvia Getchell 7:30 pm- Mast Way School

7th- Sanbornton HS- 'A review of NH Farmer's markets'- Jack Potter- Lane Tavern 7:30 pm

9th- Hancock HS 100th Anniversary Celebration- Open House 7 Main Street

10th- Antiques Appraisal- Hampton Academy Jr High- sponsored by the Hampton HS

11th- Raymond HS Annual meeting and program- Raymond Depot 7 pm

12th- Laconia HS- 'The Great Lakeport Fire of May 26, 1903" Laconia Public Library 7: 30 pm

13th- Conway HS- 7 pm Salyards Museum- Ginger Blymer- Anecdotes from Hollywood

14th- New Hampton HS 'Yankee and NH Humor'- Rebecca Rule 7 pm- Gordon Nash Library

21st- Milford HS- 'Wildflowers of New England' and annual meeting Milford Town Hall 7:30 pm

Future dates:

New England Regional Genealogical Conference, Nov. 6 2003, info at www.rootesweb.com/~manergc

Other Notes:

The Durham HS newsletter has an insert of historic newspapers- one article mentioned a 2 bedroom house for sale in Durham- price- $9,800. Year- 1964

We congratulate the Hancock HS on its 100th Anniversary- May 9

The web site of the Milford HS is celebrating its 1st anniversary- www.milfordhistory.com

The next Associate will be mailed in mid May, events and news to Ben Moore, 107 Locke Rd, Hampton 03842 email- BFMoore@attbi.com